

Price filtering - Fallback values for min/max

A new option has been added to the Product List Filter widget, which allows you to use fallback values for the minimum and maximum dollar values on the price slider. These values will be used when no min/max is found against the category being viewed, or in scenarios such as search.