

Product Documents via CMS

You can now upload documents for products in the CMS, similar to the way you might already manage other product media. A new Product Documents widget is available to be added to the product detail page.

This widget can display all documents associated with a product, or you can use tags to display only certain documents (combine tags with Layers to personalise your content!)