Website User Roles

Website users are assigned to one or more roles. There is a default set of standard roles. Each role has an intended function and a set of enabled /disabled permissions. Administrators can create custom roles with custom permissions to suit their business requirements.

- User Logins & Registrations
- Website User Status
- Standard Roles
- Copy Website Role for New Role