Enhanced Mailchimp Integration

The addition of the processed_at_foreign field brings context to Mailchimp around what date an order was processed. This empowers marketers to build email campaigns / automations that are more rich and relevant to buyers. Prior to the change the default date of 1st of Feb 1970 was coming through.