Offline Order Confirmation emails display order number

Offline order confirmation emails have not traditionally included the sales order number in the subject line....... until now. From version 4.03+, the order number will be included in the email's subject line (just like web orders do)!