

Tax code for products in PRONTO 700+

In PRONTO 700 and later, products were treated as non-taxable by default where no product-specific tax code records existed. CSS has now been updated to fall back to the stock price record for the product and then the default system configuration flag for the treatment of tax codes on products where such codes do not exist.