

Image switching in list / grid view

From version 4.04 you can now view products in a list and have the image switch when a variant is selected. Previously, the image only changed when the product's detail page was being viewed.