

Modal input window for customer reference when placing order on hold

The Cart Buttons widget has been updated to include a new option for the Hold Reference. This new flag determines whether the user inputs their hold reference in a modal window over the cart, rather than being redirected to the Orders On Hold page.