Quantity in Cart widget display

A new option has been added to the Quantity in Cart widget, allowing you to display it even against products where the user has none in their cart. The default behaviour is still to display the widget only when the user has one or more of a product in their cart.