RRP display for product variants

A new option has been added to the 'Product Variant List widget' that allows retailers and registered buyers to view the RRP of each child product in a list, while hiding the RRP from the guest user.