

Store Availability - Click & Collect

There is now the ability to show different availability icons for products based on the order fulfillment mode - delivery vs. pickup. For delivery, availability is based on the customer's default warehouse, but for pickup it is based upon their currently selected store. This change also includes new store selection functionality.