

Style sheet editing via CMS

Customers can now develop custom styles by editing the updates.css stylesheet file from within the CMS. The history of changes is stored, as well as the editing user. There is also functionality to revert contents of the file to a previous version. This functionality is available for sites on version 3.85+.

- Documentation - Style Sheet Editor